

"Having omitted all those things which may have taken place during forty-three days between our Lord and His disciples, St. Luke silently joins to the first day of the resurrection, the last day when He ascended into heaven, saying, And he led them out as far as to Bethany. First, indeed, because of the name of the place, which signifies "the house of obedience." For He who descended because of the disobedience of the wicked, ascended because of the obedience of the converted."

Vacation Bible School

“Superheros in the Bible”/ “Superhéros en la Biblia”

June 12th - June 15th

6:00 - 8:00 PM

The Immaculate Conception family would like to bid a fond farewell to long time parishioners Jay and Noreen Tilley. The Tilley family, including sons Jamie and Andrew, joined our church in 1990. Both sons were altar servers and received the Sacrament of Confirmation at Immaculate Conception.

Jay served the Clinton community as chief of police while Noreen was a teacher with the Clinton City School system. ICC was also blessed to have Noreen put her mathematic skills to work as Chairwoman of our Finance Council since 1995.

We wish Noreen and Jay the best of luck as they begin a new life in Greenville and start to enjoy their well earned retirement .

Good Luck and don't forget to come back and visit your Immaculate Conception family!

In celebration of our graduates and to say good bye to Noreen and Jay everyone is invited to join us in the Fr. Price Center immediately following English mass next Sunday, June 4th for cake and refreshments.

If you are able to bring finger foods to share for this celebration, please do so.
