

"Calling together the Apostles, He gave them the Gospel doctrine, to one more, to another less, not as of His own bounty or scanting, but as meeting the capacity of the receivers, as the Apostle says [1 Cor 3:2], that he fed with milk those that were unable to take solid food. In the five, two, and one talent, we recognize the diversity of gifts wherewith we have been entrusted. "

MUSIC

Greeting Church Family!

Thank you church family for making Bridget Capparuccia feel so welcome at the 10:00 mass last Sunday. Many of you came up and spoke and commented how beautifully she played the organ. She will be back with us on November 29. A senior at Liberty University majoring in vocal performance, she is also minoring in flute. Many of you may know her parents, Sean and Lara Capparuccia, who are music directors at Graves Memorial Presbyterian Church. We are blessed by Bridget's talent!

Our special music today is a trio from our friends and neighbors from Grove Park Baptist: Wendy Cabral, Libby Zaccardi, and Lisa Turlington. This abundance of talent reminds me of our Festival of Talent which was held earlier this year. I look forward to planning that again for 2021. Also, Evander Pope is working on some special music and will certainly be with us on Christmas Eve. Blessings and Light! Michael
