

"To the virgin Mary was sent, not any one of the angels, but the archangel Gabriel, for upon this service it was meet that the highest angel should come, as being the bearer of the highest of all tidings."

Dear Parishioners!

As Advent draws to a close and Christmas looms now on the horizon, I wish to offer you my sincere prayer and desire that this Christmas 2020 bring a special blessing to each and every one. This has been an extraordinary year; something that has never been experienced by anyone ever before. The Coronavirus has severely impacted all spheres of life, and Churches have not been spared. And because a church is in fact a community of persons living a common faith experience, it has been acutely felt within the walls of ICC. So many who have been faithful, weekly participants, have rightly opted not to endanger their own health or those of their loved ones, and their absence is keenly perceived.

I pray that the New Year will bring the remedy we desperately need so that we can once again function in freedom as we did before the pandemic began. With my heartfelt desire that the Lord's Presence may descend upon you and yours on the Feast of His Birth, I remain.

Faternally yours,

Fr. Joseph Dionne, C.Ss.R.

MUSIC

Greetings Church Family!

As I contemplate this blessed season of Advent and in just a few days the glorious season of Christmas, I am again reminded of one of the best Read Aloud books I have ever used as an example of hope, joy, and peace: The Christmas Miracle of Jonathan Toomey IS that book! Written by Susan Wojciechowski and published in 1995, Jonathan Toomey lives on the outskirts of a small village where he is always alone and never smiles. The townspeople call him Mr. Gloomy. What they don't know is he lost his wife and son in childbirth. He is a master carver and finds "restoration" in his life by carving figures for a nativity commissioned by the Widow McDowell and her son Thomas. I always shared this book with my students and I will never forget what one student said about a miracle: "Mr. Michael, a miracle is what happens when all hope is lost." I will never forget that! What is your miracle this Christmas? Looking forward to seeing you all Christmas Eve at 10:00 as we rejoice together the birth of our Lord! We will have special music! Michael
