

"But it is necessary for those who desire to partake of the bread which comes down from heaven, often to cleanse their evil deeds by alms, by tears, and the other fruits of righteousness. It is also necessary for a man to wash thoroughly away the pollutions which he has contracted from the cares of temporal business, by being afterwards intent on good thoughts and works."

Greetings Church Family!

MUSIC

I had a blessed opportunity to share some Catholic love at Red Hill Universalist Church last Sunday. With only 125 days till Christmas, I was led to use "Christmas in August" as my theme. At crosswalk.com I found an interesting article on "6 Lessons Hidden in the Christmas Story." I think these six lessons are universally appropriate for any day of the year:

- *God offers forgiveness for all.
- *Christ will be our shepherd.
- *God can perform the impossible.
- *God provides in His way.
- *God grants us peace when we wait on him.
- *God is in control of leadership and world events.

We were blessed to have Carol Pope play for us on August 22 and today we welcome Dr. Cabral, Lisa Turlington, and Libbie Zaccardi for special music. Check out crosswalk.com if "You need a little Christmas NOW!"

VIDEO MESSAGE OF THE HOLY FATHER FRANCIS TO THE PEOPLE ON THE VACCINATION CAMPAIGN AGAINST COVID-19

In a brotherly spirit, I join in this message of hope for a brighter future. Thanks to God and to the work of many, we now have vaccines to protect us from COVID-19. They grant us the hope of ending the pandemic, but only if they are available to all and if we work together.

Being vaccinated with vaccines authorized by the competent authorities is an act of love. And contributing to ensure the majority of people are vaccinated is an act of love. Love for oneself, love for one's family and friends, love for all people. Love is also social and political, there is social love and political love; it is universal, always overflowing with small gestures of personal charity capable of transforming and improving societies (cf. Laudato si', no. 231, cf. Fratelli tutti, 184).

Vaccination is a simple but profound way of promoting the common good and caring for each other, especially the most vulnerable. I pray to God that everyone may contribute their own small grain of sand, their own small gesture of love; no matter how small, love is always great. Contribute with these small gestures for a better future.

God bless you, and thank you.

Pope Francis

Bulletin of the Holy See Press Office, 18 August 2021

Videomensaje del Santo Padre

Con espíritu fraterno, me uno a este mensaje de esperanza en un futuro más luminoso. Gracias a Dios y al trabajo de muchos, hoy tenemos vacunas para protegernos del COVID-19. Ellas traen esperanza para acabar con la pandemia, pero sólo si están disponibles para todos y si colaboramos unos con otros.

Vacunarse, con vacunas autorizadas por las autoridades competentes, es un acto de amor. Y ayudar a que la mayoría de la gente lo haga, es un acto de amor. Amor a uno mismo, amor a los familiares y amigos, amor a todos los pueblos. El amor es también social y político, hay amor social y amor político, es universal, siempre desbordante de pequeños gestos de caridad personal capaces de transformar y mejorar las sociedades (cf. Laudato si', 231; Fratelli tutti, 184).

Vacunarse es un modo sencillo pero profundo de promover el bien común y de cuidarnos unos a otros, especialmente a los más vulnerables. Le pido a Dios para que cada uno pueda aportar su pequeño grano de arena, su pequeño gesto de amor, por más pequeño que sea el amor siempre es grande. Aportar esos pequeños gestos para un futuro mejor.

Dios los bendiga, y gracias.

Francisco
