

"He read standing, because while explaining those Scriptures which were written of Him, He condescended to work in the flesh; but having returned the book, He sits down, because He restored Himself to the Throne of heavenly rest. For standing is the part of the workman, but sitting the one who is resting or judging."

Greetings Church Family!

MUSIC

The theme for today's Readings: Justice and the law/God's word proclaimed in the law...

Due to some inclement weather, we had a small intimate gathering for mass on January 16.

The congregation did a great job singing our new hymn for January: "May We See You."

I hope the words gave you much to think about as we approach Lent.

I am also grateful for the gathering for our 3rd Senior Luncheon held on the day set aside to remember and honor the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

I used my favorite quote by Dr. King to illustrate a book I read: "Mr. Peabody's Apples."

The quote is:

"Darkness cannot drive out darkness, only light can do that." The main character, Mr. Peabody, shows a young boy, Tommy, what matters most is the TRUTH - not how things appear. We must choose our words carefully to avoid hurting others.

Special thanks to Gloria Edwards for providing music.

Be blessed my church family! Michael
