

“Zacchæus is called the son of Abraham, not because he was born of Abraham’s seed but because he imitates his faith. Just as Abraham left his country and his father’s house, so he abandoned all his goods in giving them to the poor. And He well says, “He also,” to declare that not only those who had lived justly, but those who are raised up from a life of injustice, belong to the sons of promise.”

MUSIC

Greetings Church Family!

Themes found in today's Readings: Jesus in our midst/Our protector and Saviour/Forgiveness.

Responsorial: "I will praise your name forever, my king and my God." Psalm 145

I was grateful to celebrate my Catholic faith last Sunday at Outlaw's Bridge Universalist Church near Seven Springs. This year has brought me renewed gratitude as I honor the 20th anniversary of the Edith Bradshaw Scholarship. To remember the person who taught me all I know about being a decent and good man is indeed a blessed opportunity. Because my mother was my first "teacher" in life, I have always been mindful of a love of reading, music, and service to my church and community.
